

SUMMARY

Dom & Hyo started in 2013 as a comic blog that has grown into one of the most popular resources for learning Korean on the go and also facts about Korean life such as travel, food, and holidays. With the use of colorful infographics to catch people’s eye, the site has grown to have a large following. While the site started of slow with its growth, traffic has grown by 150% over the past year and a half and still growing. With this growth, we have received a lot of inquiries for advertising and have decided to launch our advertising service in April 2018.

Becoming an advertising partner with us will give you access to our 1,500 visitors a day who have an interest in learning Korean and Korean about culture in general.
